

Fraud Alert Privacy Statement

Note: This policy only applies to the Daisy/c.View websites and not to the web sites of other companies, individuals or organisations. Daisy respects the privacy concerns of users of this website and is registered under the relevant Data Protection legislation.

Consent

You signify your consent to Daisy collecting and using this information you provide on this web site. Should for any reason we elect to change our Policy, we will notify you of those changes here, so that you are always kept informed of how we collect and use the information, and when we would disclose it.

We will not give, rent or sell your email address to outside companies.

When you register onto the Fraud Alert service, Daisy will store your e-mail address along with any other information you may provide. This information may include, but is not limited to, details such as your name, your companies name and address details.

We use the information provided to permit access to facilitate the broadcast of the Daisy Fraud Alert notification email to you. In addition we may use the information for internal administration and analysis.

We may use information collected about you to personalise your visits to our web site. We also use the information to help us develop the design and layout of our website to ensure that our sites are as useful as possible.

In addition we may use the information to let you know about functionality changes to our website and new services that you might find interesting.

By disclosing your personal information to Daisy, you agree to the collection, storage and processing of your personal information in the manner set out here.

You have the right to ask Daisy for a copy of the personal information it holds about you, and to correct any inaccuracies in that information.

Daisy Fraud Alert If you subscribe to the Fraud Alert Service, your name and your companies name and email address details will be placed in the database we use to broadcast the Fraud Alert notification email. As with all other personal information, only employees of Daisy and associated companies have access to this data. We do not give email addresses to outside companies. Daisy will never sell, rent or otherwise abuse your email address. It will be used solely for the purpose of sending you Fraud Alert notification emails. Should you wish to unsubscribe at any time, instructions are included with each email for immediate removal from the database.

All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that all emails that you send to Daisy will be dealt with confidentially.

Fraud Alert Security Statement

As part of the Fraud Alert service, Daisy may be required to send confidential and sensitive information to our customers via email. The Internet is not a 100% secure medium for communication and is potentially accessible by the mass public. Accordingly, we cannot guarantee the security of any information we may send to you via the Internet. We are not responsible for any loss or damage you or others may suffer as a result of the loss of confidentiality of such information.
